

The poster is decorated with autumn-themed illustrations. At the top, two large sunflowers with yellow petals and brown centers are flanked by golden wheat stalks. Below them, several orange pumpkins and scattered autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and brown are visible. A scarecrow in a red coat and straw hat stands in a field of golden wheat on the left side. On the right, a large wicker basket is overflowing with various fresh produce, including red apples, yellow corn cobs, and green leafy vegetables. In the foreground, there are more baskets of pumpkins and apples, along with various household items like jars of jam, a box of tea, a tube of toothpaste, and a roll of toilet paper. The background is a soft, light blue sky with falling leaves.
